

Professional staff information.

(A) Professional staff. Professional staff are full-time or part-time non-teaching professional personnel of the university. Any professional staff originally appointed prior to July 1, 1986 shall be designated as a member of the general faculty as long as the person continues in such position. Professional staff do not hold regular faculty rank (e.g., instructor, assistant professor, associate professor, professor.) The minimum requirement for this employment category is an exemption from the Fair Labor Standards Act.

(B) Appointments.

(1) Regular professional staff appointments do not include a specific end date. Professional staff are not eligible for indefinite tenure.

(2) Temporary professional staff have a specific end date at the time of appointment. Temporary professional staff shall have no expectation of employment beyond their end date. However, based on university business needs, the end date for temporary professional staff may be extended. Temporary professional staff may be separated at any time without notice based on university discretion, and paragraphs (C), (D), (E), (F), and (K) of this rule do not apply to temporary professional staff.

(3) Full-time appointments will be forty hours per week.

(4) Part-time appointments will be less than forty hours per week.

(C) Separation from employment without cause, other than for a reduction in workforce, for professional staff.

(1) A professional staff member, other than professional staff members in the department of athletics classified as coach, may be separated from employment without cause at any time upon the recommendation of the immediate supervisor and with approval of the appropriate dean or vice president and of the chief human resources officer (CHRO). Notice will be given:

(a) Three months prior to the date of separation during the professional staff's initial two years of continuous employment with the university of Akron, or

(b) Six months prior to the date of separation in the event the professional staff member has served more than two years of continuous proportionate to any alleged reputational harm.

- (2) The professional staff member shall have the right to be assisted by an advisor or attorney at their own cost, but such advisor or attorney shall not actively participate in the hearing, other than to privately counsel and advise the professional staff member.
- (F) Reduction in workforce. Conditions may arise that necessitate the reduction of the university workforce. Reduction of two or more professional staff positions, including coaches, in this manner may occur for a variety of reasons including but not limited to, budgetary constraints, changing priorities, lack of work, reasons of economy, efficiency improvements, reorganization, or due to extraordinary or catastrophic circumstances or events beyond the university's control.
- (1) Employees with less than five years of continuous employment with the university of Akron will be provided with at least thirty calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of termination.
  - (2) Employees with five years or more of continuous employment with the university of Akron will be provided with at least forty-five calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of termination.
  - (3) Employees shall be entitled to paid leave at their current rate of pay with benefits during the first thirty days of the notice period, subject to the following conditions:
    - (a) The paid leave will start on a date to be determined by the employee's supervisor in consultation with human resources and may be immediate, or may be delayed, but will begin no later than fourteen calendar days after notice of the reduction in force is given.
    - (b) Employees with five or more years of continuous employment at the university of Akron may choose to utilize their accrued vacation leave to be paid for any days past the first thirty days of the notice period. Otherwise, this time shall be considered a leave of absence without pay.
    - (c) If an employee obtains a full-time position with the university or any other employer before the completion of the applicable notice period, the paid leave shall terminate on the date of the new employment.
- (G) Resignation. A professional staff member who proposes to resign from the university of Akron should give sufficient notice to obviate serious difficulty to the university in filling the position. Once a resignation has been submitted and accepted by the employee's immediate supervisor, it may not be withdrawn without the specific approval of the immediate supervisor and the CHRO.

- (H) More information regarding separation from employment of professional staff is outlined in rule 3359-26-05 of the Administrative Code.
- (I) Vacation. Full-time professional staff with a twelve month appointment are entitled to one hundred seventy-six hours of vacation per year, as further detailed in rule 3359-11-03 of the Administrative Code.
- (J) Leave of absence. Leaves of absence without compensation may be granted by the CHRO or the CHRO's designee(s) upon recommendation of the appropriate vice president. Leaves of absence without compensation for the purpose of career
