

Reporting Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking, and Sexual Harassment

Knowing who to talk to about sexual misconduct can be difficult for all of us, especially if you have personal experience with trauma, violence, or sexual misconduct. We asked our students what help they needed and what information they wanted.

|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| Where to go?What you may want to ask? You can become involved with education and awareness campaigns and violence prevention by outreaching to any of the offices/areas listed below. | information about the University of Akron policies_ | professional who is confidential_ | medical assistance or help identifying medical resources_ | help to get back on track with school_ (e.g., homework, housing to be excused from class, etc.) | school to investigate the responsible person or to pursue criminal charges_ |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|